Sub: Regarding implementation of order of the Hon'ble High Court in respect of Adhoc Service benefits

Memo:

With reference to the representations received from different quarters on the subject cited above. In this regard it is apprised that the matter regarding grant of benefit of adhoc service( without break till regularisation) to all the persons similarly situated to that of the petitioner in CWP (T) 7712/2008 titled as Paras Ram v/s State of H.P. in accordance with the judgement of the Hon'ble High Court passed on 19.5.2009 delivered in the said CWP was under consideration of the Govt. The Govt. vide its letter No:EDN-C-B(15)-9/2011 dated 30.12.2011 has approved that the benefit of adhoc service may be extended to all persons similarly situated to that of the case of Sh. Paras Ram in CWP (T) No:7712/2008.

The Hon'ble High Court vide judgement passed on 19.5.2009 in CWP No:7712/2008 has held that "adhoc services rendered before regularisation be counted for the purpose of annual increments"

In-view of above it is directed that benefit of adhoc services may be extended to all persons similarly situated to that of Sh. Parars Ram. However, they will be granted these increments on notional basis and actual financial benefits (arrears etc.) will be admissible to all the concerned from the date of regular appointment.

It is therefore, directed to settle all the concerned cases accordingly after verification from S.O.(F&A). It is further directed that arrears etc. be prepared in light of instructions contained in H.P.Govt. Finance (Pay Revision) Department O.M. No.FIN (PR)B(7)-2/2001 dated 15.1.2002 and O.M.No.FIN-(PR)B(7)2/2001 dated 31.5.2010.It may invariably be ensure that proper and appropriate entries in this regard are made in the service books of all concerned.
